

Grade School Application

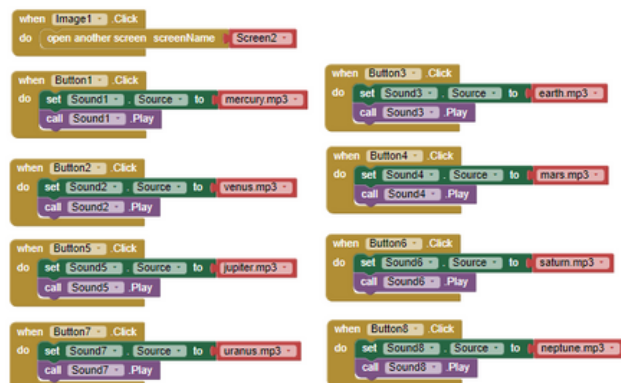

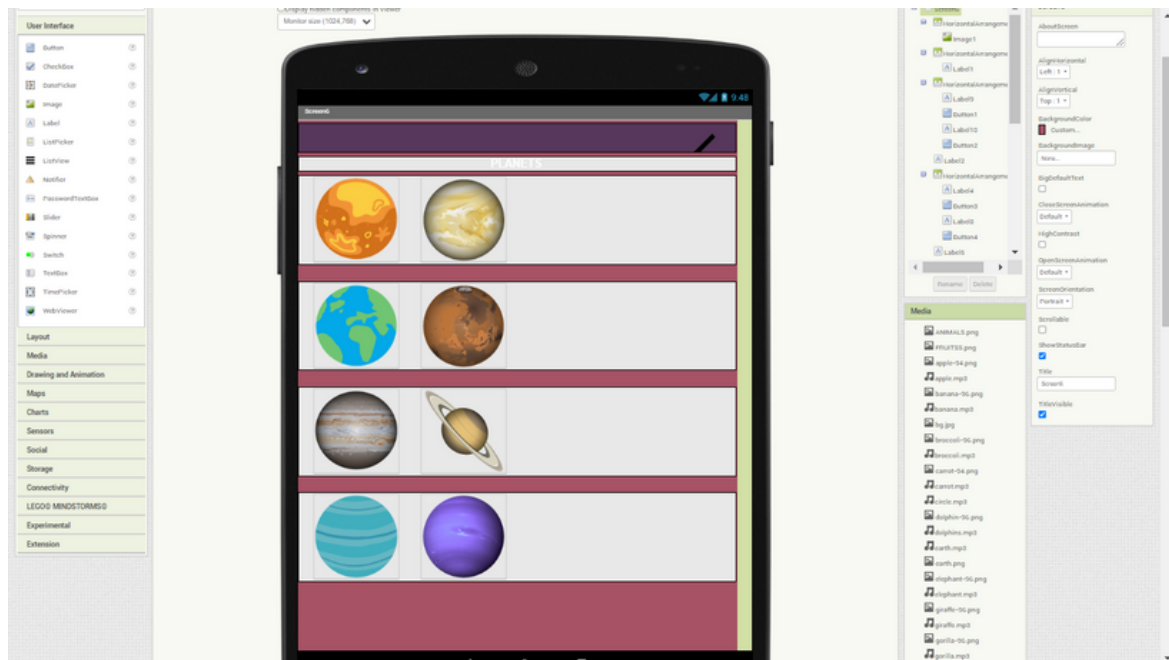

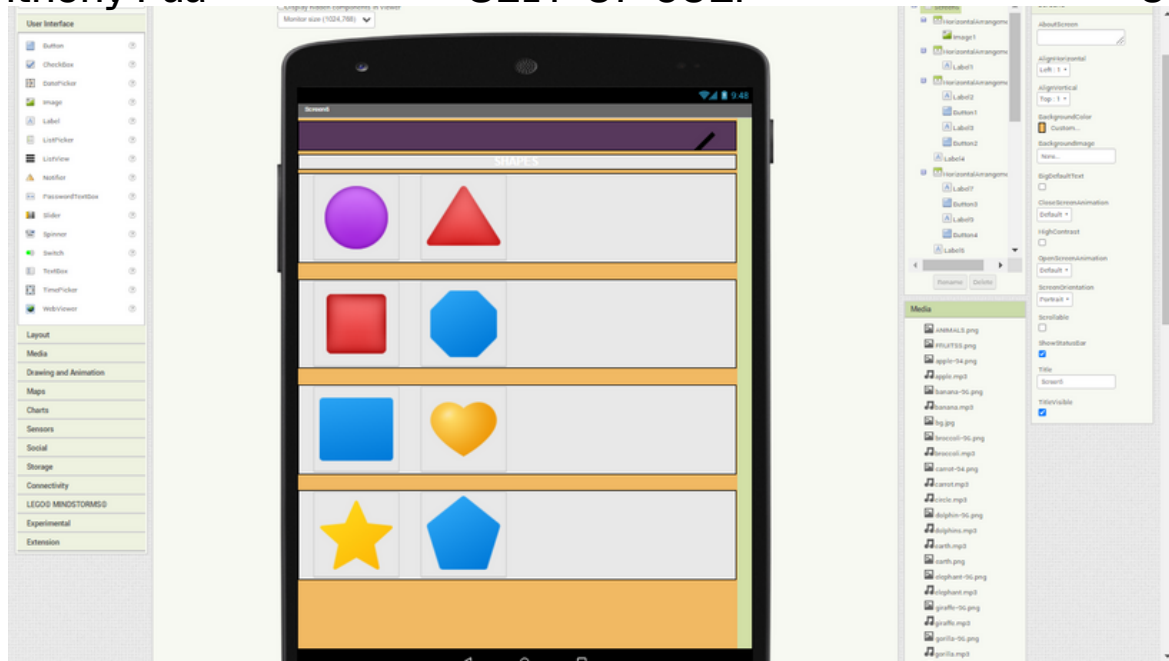

Figma Design Guide

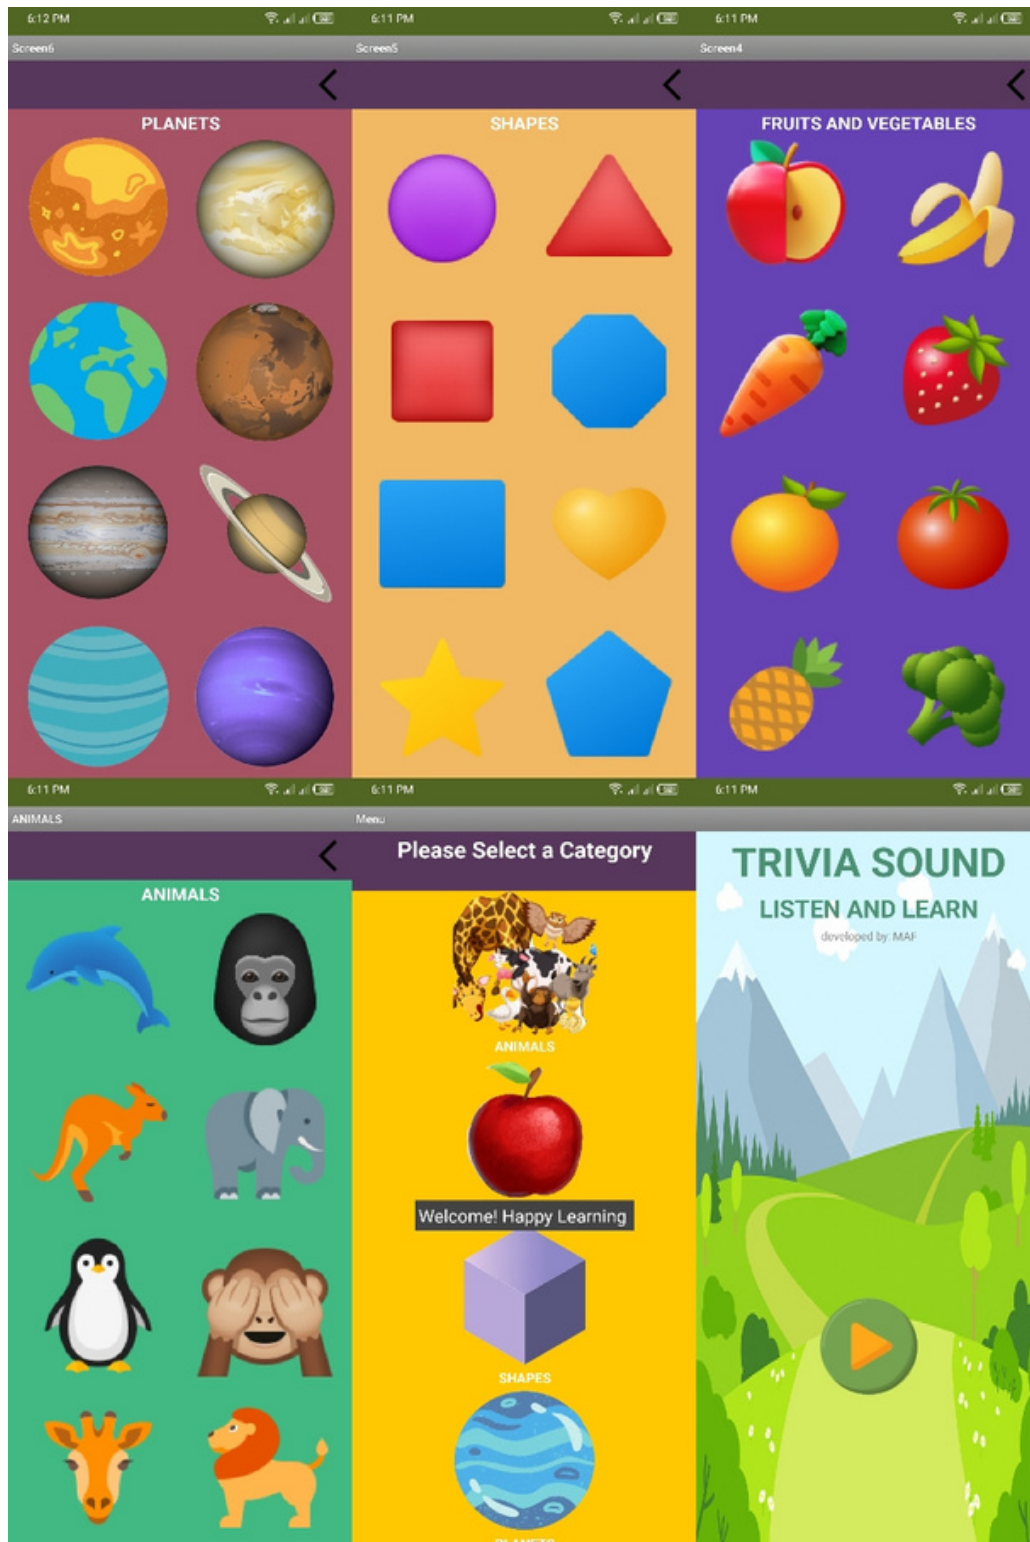

App Inventor (Designer and Blocks)

Application Screenshot

About the application

The application is called Trivia sound. There are categories like animals, fruits, shapes and planets they can choose what categories they like to. They can interact with the eight images under that categories and when they click a certain images a voice will play and give a trivia or knowledge about certain images. This will help grade-schoolers to memorize and identify it.